PEDDLER Licenses:

Information for Residents:

Peddlers are asked to display their license in a visible manner when soliciting. There is no excuse for not displaying it.

If a peddler is found to be soliciting without a license, you are encouraged to report the solicitor to the Webster Police by calling 9-1-1, especially if you fear for your personal safety or are suspicious of the activity.

It is most helpful if you have the company name and the name of the individual, nature of business, and type of vehicle.

If possible, please try to obtain any literature or brochures offered, as this will assist an investigation.

Also, please notify the Town Clerk's Office (585-872-7060) if you had a negative experience with a licensed solicitor.

A permit can be revoked if the behavior is in violation of Town Code.

The Town Clerk's Office maintains a listing of all current licensed peddlers on the Town's Website:

After several years of meetings in schoolhouses and homes, Webster's First Universalist Church was dedicated by Reverend Spaulding in November of 1845.

The original budget was only $1200 so the cobblestones used in the construction of the new church were gathered from along the shores of Lake Ontario by church members.

In 1925 it was sold to the Raymond and Elmer Johnson who converted the church to an automotive sales and repair garage.

Originally selling Maxwell and Chalmers automobiles, both automobile firms closed in the mid 1920's. In later years, the business focused more on automotive repair and the sale of Allis-Chalmers farm equipment.
